JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 40th season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2020, becoming only the seventh individual in Major League Baseball history to reach the 40-year milestone as a club owner (Connie Mack of the Philadelphia A's owns the mark with 50 seasons in leadership).

During his time as chairman, Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and the NBA's Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans. Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917. The championship was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans.

The White Sox have reached the postseason five times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2008 when they captured the American League Central Division title in a one-game playoff. The Sox also claimed division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000 and 2005. Every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come since 1981, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received four prestigious honors in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service." In August 2011, Reinsdorf received the Barnes and Thornburg Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace, and in November 2011, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were honored by Commissioner Bud Selig with the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence for the club's Volunteer Corps. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

In response to President Barack Obama's call to service in 2009, Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the White Sox Volunteer Corps to support the Chicagoland community through service. The Corps, now consisting of staff, players and nearly 5,000 fan volunteers, has mobilized to provide more than 51,000 hours of community service with an estimated value of $1.5 million during its decade of existence, including work renovating Chicago Public Schools, remodeling local Boys & Girls Clubs and donating time at the Greater Chicago Food Depository.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago Bulls Charities. In 2019, the White Sox held 51 events in the community with over 700 appearances by players and staff, distributed over 140,000 complimentary tickets to organizations, donated over $450,000 in in-kind support and engaged over 17,000 youth in baseball initiatives. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $32 million to Chicagoland organizations in cumulative giving since its inception. In 2015, the Chicago Bulls received honors as the inaugural ESPN

Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, and in 2017, the White Sox were finalists for the same award, which celebrates and recognizes how members of the sports industry use sport to serve their communities and make a positive impact. In December 2017, owners for five Chicago sports teams – the Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox – joined together as the Chicago Sports Alliance to donate $1 million annually to the UChicago Crime Lab and other worthy programs in an ongoing effort to support solutions to the violence that plagues some neighborhoods in Chicago.

In 2020, the White Sox will host the 13th annual "Double Duty Classic," a high school baseball All-Star Game featuring many of the nation's top inner-city baseball players. The Classic, named for Negro League great Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe, celebrates the community's pride in the Negro League East-West All-Star Games, held annually at Comiskey Park in Chicago from the 1930s until the 1960s, while a symposium before the game teaches players about the game's history and importance.

Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program in 2007. Sponsored by Chicago White Sox Charities, ACE provides urban-based and largely minority youth the opportunity to play in a high-quality travel baseball program. In its 13 years, 28 ACE players have been drafted, while over 190 have signed scholarships to play college baseball. ACE alumni have won NCAA Championships and have been drafted as high as the first round (fifth pick overall).

In recognition of his life-long commitment to promoting diversity, Reinsdorf's White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise also was chosen to host the annual Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Reinsdorf has been responsible for the construction of four new sports facilities in Chicago. In addition to the building of new Comiskey Park (1991), Reinsdorf initiated construction of three other major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, the Sheri L. Berto Center served as the Bulls training facility from 1992-2014, and the Advocate Center, which opened in 2014 and now serves as the Bulls practice and training facility in downtown Chicago. The White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers also opened a state-of-the-art spring training complex, named Camelback Ranch — Glendale, in 2009.

OFFICERS

Over the past two decades, Reinsdorf, the White Sox and the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority have undertaken dramatic offseason renovations to Guaranteed Rate Field. In 2016, three new, state-of-the-art video boards were installed in the ballpark, and the team added "The Goose Island," an innovative seating area in right field, in 2019.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. Currently, he serves on the Commissioner's Executive Council. In the past, he has served on many other committees, including Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative, Business and Media Board and Long-Range Labor Planning.

He was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, and Major League Baseball honored Reinsdorf and the White Sox with the Club Appreciation Award in 2018 to celebrate the program's 20th anniversary. Over the past 20 years, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program. In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. Frank Thomas and Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, Tim Lincecum in 2017, Jim Thome in 2018, Harold Baines in 2019, and Ken "Hawk" Harrelson will receive the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence this July.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls – the third-longest in the NBA – the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). Reinsdorf was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass., becoming the 10th NBA owner to be honored.

Reinsdorf has played a critical role in the development of the west side area surrounding the United Center and was responsible for introducing an innovative reading program to the Chicago Public Schools. Through the Chicago Bulls/Sox Training Academy, which opened in 2001, and outreach efforts such as White Sox Training Centers and Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools, Reinsdorf's franchises promote sports to thousands of youth while instilling a love of the game in future fans.

Reinsdorf's Silver Chalice Ventures, formed in 2009, joined with Sinclair Broadcasting Group to launch Stadium, a 24/7 multiplatform sports network available in broadcast and cable markets across the country as well as through a vast number of leading digital platforms.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have three surviving children and nine grandchildren.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 40th season with the White Sox after being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Jerry Reinsdorf on October 26, 2012.

Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the White Sox as well as continuing oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations. The 40-plus-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012.

During his 39-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's five postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2008), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years. Pizer also has coordinated the team's last two Hall of Fame induction celebrations, for Frank Thomas in 2014 and Harold Baines in 2019.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create new Comiskey Park, now Guaranteed Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the state-of-the-art facility which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons. He continues to serve in an executive position at the United Center.

Pizer also participated in the development of the Advocate Center, the new Bulls training center located next to the United Center and the MB Ice Arena, the new Blackhawks practice facility and community ice center. Pizer is the White Sox chief liaison with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of Guaranteed Rate Field. KEN WILLIAMS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Ken Williams begins his 39th season in professional baseball and his eighth as executive vice president after being promoted to the position on October 26, 2012. In his present role, Williams has increased the scope and range of his involvement with the club while continuing to maintain oversight and final approval on major baseball decisions. He also attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf.

In 2019, shortstop Tim Anderson led the major leagues with a .335 batting average, joining Hall of Famer Luke Appling (.388 in 1936) as the only players in White Sox history to accomplish the feat. Anderson, Appling (1936 and 1943) and Hall of Famer Frank Thomas (1997) are the only Sox hitters in franchise history to win an American League batting title. With 123 RBI, José Abreu joined Dick Allen (113 in 1972) as the only Sox hitters ever to lead the league in that category.

This offseason, the baseball department's executive team of Williams and General Manager Rick Hahn continued its long-term process to focus the White Sox organization toward an emphasis on youth, development and sustained winning at the major league level. The White Sox signed free agents C Yasmani Grandal, LHP Gio González, LHP Dallas Keuchel, a former Cy Young Award winner, DH Edwin Encarnación and RHP Steve Cishek, while also extending slugger Abreu to a multiyear deal and trading for OF Nomar Mazara.

Despite major league promotions of highly-touted prospects like OF Eloy Jiménez, RHP Michael Kopech, INF Yoán Moncada, RHP Lucas Giolitto and RHP Dylan Cease over the past three seasons, the White Sox farm system still remained ranked by multiple sources as among the best in baseball with four top prospects entering the 2020 season. OF Luis Robert, the highly-ranked Cuban center fielder who signed a $50-million, six-year extension this offseason, is rated the No. 3 prospect in baseball, while 1B Andrew Vaughn (No. 16), Kopech (No. 20) and 2B Nick Madrigal (No. 40) all receive top recognition. According to a recent analysis by Baseball America, the White Sox ranked No. 2 in baseball for most WAR (101) generated by players the team drafted and signed between 2010-2019.

Williams spent 12 seasons (2001-12) as the White Sox general manager, the best winning percentage in franchise history. The White Sox claimed a World Series Championship in 2005 – the franchise's first in 88 years – two division titles (2005 and 2008) and five second-place finishes. The club finished .500 or better nine times, going 1,014-931 (.521) over his 12 seasons.

Williams capped his fifth season as general manager in 2005 by winning the third World Series title in the franchise's history and the first since 1917. The 2005 World Champion White Sox became just the second team in major-league history to lead its division wire-to-wire and sweep the World Series in four games. The other was the 1927 Yankees. The Sox were 11-1 in postseason play, winning their final eight games.

Prior to the 2005 championship season, the White Sox signed five free agents – OF Jermaine Dye, RHP Dustin Hermanson, RHP Orlando Hernández, Japanese INF Tadahito Iguchi and C A.J. Pierzynski – and each played a key role in helping the team to the World Series title. The Sox also acquired OF Scott Podsednik and RHP Luis Vizcaino in a trade with the Brewers.

During his tenure, Williams acquired 171 players in 72 trades involving the major-league roster. His teams included four Cuban players, José Contreras, Orlando Hernández (2005), Alexei Ramírez (2008-15) and Dayan Viciedo (2010-14), and two Japanese players (Iguchi and Shingo Takatsu).

Williams was the first African-American general manager in Chicago sports history and the third in major-league history, following Bill Lucas (Atlanta, 1979) and Bob Watson (Houston, 1994-95/Yankees, 1996-97). From 2001-03, Williams and Jerry Manuel formed the first African-American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history. He was honored at the McDonald's 365Black Awards in July 2013 as one of the nation's history makers of today and tomorrow.

Williams has spent four decades in baseball in various capacities: player, scout, director of minor league operations, special assistant to the chairman, vice president of player development and general manager. He joined the front office in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities, and was named special assistant to Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994.

He served as director of minor-league operations from 1995-96 and vice president of player development from 1997-2000. Under his direction, the Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America and USA Today.

Active in the organization's community outreach programs, Williams takes part in the annual "Double Duty Classic" at the ballpark, speaking to young amateur baseball players about their role in the history of the sport. Williams supports the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, which has had 28 players drafted and over 200 players sign college scholarships to play baseball since it began in 2007. In 2013, he was named to MLB's Diversity Committee, an 18-member task force given the objective of increasing diversity in the game, particularly among black players.

Williams has been active in the team's "Becoming A Man" program, an initiative aimed at teaching young, at-risk men how to resolve conflict in a non-violent manner. The BAM program was recognized by President Barack Obama for its positive impact on the fight against urban violence. Williams also met with members of the READI program as part of the Chicago Sports Alliance's cooperative efforts to prevent gun violence.

A former outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 major-league games.

Born on April 6, 1964, in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played football. Williams is married to Zoraida Sambolin, the morning news anchor for WMAQ Channel 5. Together, she and Williams promote prostate and breast cancer awareness, education and early screening. In January 2019, the couple teamed with a local restaurant and St. Sabina's Church to offer free meals to workers negatively impacted by the government shutdown. Williams has three sons: Kenny Jr., who works on special assignments in the White Sox baseball operations department, Kyle, who played six years in the NFL including with the Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos in 2015, and Tyler, who played minor league baseball. Williams also has two step children: Nico, a member of the University of Iowa basketball team, and Sofia.

OFFICERS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Hahn, who begins his eighth season as White Sox general manager in 2020, has been with the club since October 2000 and helped build the 2005 World Series Champion and 2008 postseason teams. The Chicago-area native was named the club's senior vice president/general manager on October 26, 2012, and his duties include oversight of all player personnel matters, coaching staff decisions and the club's player development and scouting operations. Beginning in December 2016, the baseball department's executive team of Executive Vice President Ken Williams and Hahn began a long-term process to refocus the White Sox organization toward an emphasis on youth, development and sustained winning at the major league level.

The 2019 club featured the major-league leader in batting average and the American League RBI leader. Tim Anderson, the team's first-round pick in 2013, led the majors with a .335 average, joining Hall of Famer Luke Appling (.388 in 1936) as the only players in franchise history to accomplish the feat. Anderson, Appling (1936 and 1943) and Hall of Famer Frank Thomas (1997) are the only hitters in Sox history to win an AL batting title. With 123 RBI, three-time All-Star José Abreu joined Dick Allen (113 in 1972) as the only Sox hitters ever to lead the league.

This offseason the White Sox again captured accolades as they signed free agents C Yasmani Grandal, LHP Gio González, LHP Dallas Keuchel, a former Cy Young Award winner, DH Edwin Encarnación and RHP Steve Cishek, while extending the contract of Abreu and trading for OF Nomar Mazara.

The White Sox also agreed to a contract extension with highly-touted Cuban OF Luis Robert on January 2, 2020, continuing a long-standing desire to reach agreements with players viewed as the core of the team's future. The Sox agreed with Eloy Jiménez in 2019 and have a history of similar deals with Anderson, OF Adam Eaton, LHP José Quintana, LHP Chris Sale, LHP Mark Buehrle, 1B Paul Konerko and many others. The agreements with Jiménez and Robert were noteworthy as each came prior to the player's major-league debut.

Despite promotions of highly-touted prospects Jiménez, RHP Michael Kopech, RHP Reynaldo López, INF Yoán Moncada, RHP Lucas Giolito and RHP Dylan Cease, the White Sox farm system remains ranked among the best in baseball with four top prospects entering the 2020 season. Robert is rated the No. 3 prospect across baseball, while 1B Andrew Vaughn (No. 16), Kopech (No. 20) and 2B Nick Madrigal (No. 40) are among the Top 40. According to Baseball America, the White Sox ranked No. 2 in baseball for most WAR (101) generated by players the team drafted and signed between 2010-2019.

Hahn has added a number of talented prospects to the organization over the past four years, including Moncada, Baseball America's Minor League Player of the Year in 2016 and Kopech from Boston and Giolito, López and RHP Dane Dunning from Washington. During the 2017 season, Hahn acquired Jiménez, who topped AL rookies with 31 home runs in 2019, and Cease, 2018 MLB Pipeline Pitcher of the Year, from the Chicago Cubs. Last offseason, Hahn added RHP Alex Colomé and All-Star C James McCann to the roster.

Four of Hahn's eight first-round picks as general manager have reached the majors with two more highly rated and two others battling back from injuries. Anderson (2013), LHP Carlos Rodón (2014), RHP Carson Fulmer (2015) and C Zack Collins (2016) have already appeared for the White Sox, while other first-round picks currently in the Sox system include RHP Zack Burdi (2016), 3B Jake Burger (2017), Madrigal (2018) and Vaughn (2019).

Hahn named Rick Renteria White Sox manager on October 3, 2016. Under Hahn's supervision, the White Sox have expanded the baseball operations, analytics, player development and scouting departments, increasing the staff with several new positions. In 2016, Hahn named Chris Getz, a former Sox second baseman, as director of player development. Hahn promoted Mike Shirley to director of amateur scouting in 2019 and also added Hall of Famer Jim Thome to the organization in July 2013, naming the popular former slugger a special assistant. Hahn has traveled to the Dominican Republic multiple times as the White Sox signed several Latin American free agents behind the international scouting of Marco Paddy.

During his 12 seasons as White Sox vice president/assistant general manager, Hahn worked with Williams on roster composition, player acquisitions, talent evaluations and contract negotiations. Hahn has played a key role in moves such as signing eventual Cy Young Award runner-up Esteban Loaiza to a minor-league deal prior to the 2003 season, the waiver claim of Bobby Jenks prior to the 2005 World Series championship season, the 2007 acquisition of Most Valuable Player-candidate Carlos Quentin, and the signing of Sale, the club's 2010 first-round pick and a five-time All-Star with the White Sox.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Hahn spent two years as an associate at Steinberg, Moorad & Dunn, a sports agency based in Newport Beach, Calif., representing more than 150 athletes from Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association.

Hahn is active in the organization's community outreach efforts as he has met with the organization's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball teams and volunteered his time serving meals to families at the Ronald McDonald House in downtown Chicago.

Hahn is a native of Winnetka, Ill. and a graduate of New Trier High School, the University of Michigan, Harvard Law School, and Northwestern's Kellogg Graduate School of Management. He and his wife, Jean, have two children: Jacob and Charlie.

The White Sox and OF Eloy Jiménez agreed to terms on a six-year, $43-million contract, plus two club options on March 22, 2019.

in 2012, the White Sox program was recognized with the Steve Patterson Award for sports philanthropy. This Corps – consisting of staff, players and nearly 5,000 fan volunteers – has mobilized over the last nine seasons to renovate Boys & Girls Clubs, remodel Chicago Public Schools and provide more than 48,000 hours of community service valued at over $1 million of volunteer labor.

In 2008, Chicago White Sox Charities unveiled a brick baseball diamond as well as granite and bronze sculpture located outside the ballpark's main entrance that celebrates the franchise's 2005 World Series Championship. To mark the 10-year anniversary of the World Series in 2015, White Sox Charities sold a limited number of commemorative bricks in this plaza with proceeds supporting its community efforts. CWSC also held A Season To Remember, a fundraising event featuring conversations with several members of the 2005 team at the Chicago Theatre to raise funds for charity.

In 2018, CWS Charities held its first "Beyond The Diamond" fundraising dinner in April, which highlighted the team's commitment to the Amateur City Elite (ACE) program in a unique event at the United Center Atrium. The third "Beyond The Diamond" gala will take place April 7 at the Field Museum.

The White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program in 2007. Sponsored by Chicago White Sox Charities, ACE provides urban-based and largely minority youth the opportunity to play in a high-quality travel baseball program. In its 13 years, 28 ACE players have been drafted and 190-plus have signed scholarships to play college baseball. ACE alumni have won NCAA Championships and have been drafted as high as the fifth pick overall. White Sox RBI teams have won three MLB RBI World Series championships.

In 2020, the White Sox will celebrate the 13th anniversary of the Double Duty Classic, a high school baseball All-Star Game featuring many of the top inner-city talent. The Classic, named for Negro League great Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe, celebrates the community's pride in the Negro League East-West All-Star Game, which was played annually at Comiskey Park from the 1930s until the 1960s. The Classic highlights the team's commitment to youth baseball by showcasing top baseball talent from the city's inner-city baseball programs.

Reifert also oversees the team's market research initiatives to gather feedback on the White Sox and fan perceptions. In his 28th season with the club, Reifert is a member of the team's advertising committee and is involved in the commissioning of bronze sculptures of past Sox greats that stand at Gate 4 and in center field on the main concourse.

Reifert, who joined the White Sox in 1991 as assistant director of public relations before being promoted to director of public relations in 1997, was named vice president of communications in April 2004. He was promoted to senior vice president in 2010. During his tenure, the White Sox have hosted the 2003 All-Star Game and reached the postseason four times (1993, 2000, 2005, 2008), capturing the World Series in 2005.

Reifert received Major League Baseball's Robert Fishel Award for public relations excellence at the 2008 Winter Meetings.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Reifert worked at Wirz & Associates, a Connecticut-based sports marketing and public relations firm. A graduate of the University of Iowa, Reifert also has a master's degree in sport management from Western Illinois University. HAVEN'T SEEN THAT BEFORE

Kansas City and the White Sox both hit leadoff home runs in the first and second innings on August 17, 2006 at Guaranteed Rate Field, which according to the Elias Sports Bureau was the first time in major-league history that feat has been accomplished. David DeJesus and Emil Brown homered leading off the first two innings for the Royals, while Pablo Ozuna (first) and Jermaine Dye (second) went deep for the Sox.

STRONG FINISH IN SEPTEMBER

The White Sox batted .290/.345/.485 (270-931) with 40 home runs and 140 runs scored in September. The Sox ranked among major-league leaders in average (1st), on-base percentage (2nd), total bases (2nd, 452), doubles (T2nd, 52), slugging percentage (3rd), extra-base hits (T4th, 97) and runs per game (7th, 5.4). The .290 average was the Sox highest monthly mark since August 2010 (.298) and the highest in September since 1998 (.299).

SLAMMIN' GOOD TIME

The White Sox hit nine grand slams in 2019, the third-highest total in the major leagues behind Houston (11) and the Cubs (10). The nine slams rank third in Sox history behind the 2008 (12) and 2006 (11) clubs and are three more than they hit from 2015-18 combined. Welington Castillo, Eloy Jiménez and James McCann each hit two grand slams in 2019, tied for the major-league lead.

GOING THE DISTANCE

The White Sox tied Cleveland for the major-league lead in 2019 with six complete games, their most in a season since 2016 (seven). Lucas Giolito recorded three complete games, tied with Cleveland's Shane Bieber for the most in baseball. Iván Nova (twice) and Reynaldo López (once) also went the distance for the White Sox in 2019.

SEEING STARS

1B José Abreu (third career), RHP Lucas Giolito and C James McCann (first each) were named to the American League All-Star Team in 2019. The three All-Stars, and two first-timers, were the most for the White Sox since 2014 (also three). All three players were selected via the AL player vote. Pierzynski in 2006, and Giolito was the Sox first RHP starter selected since Jake Peavy in 2012.

HISTORY

WHITE SOX FACTOIDS

- The 1960 White Sox were the first major-league team with player names on the backs of their uniforms.
- The first official American League game was played on April 24, 1901 between the White Sox and Cleveland Indians. The Sox won, 8-2, with Roy Patterson earning the victory.
- White Sox shortstop Chico Carrasquel, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, was the first Latin American player to appear in an All-Star game when he represented the American League in 1951 at Detroit. Minnie Miñoso, who broke the Sox color barrier on May 1, 1951, was a substitute in that All-Star Game.

Orlando "El Duque" Hernández threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernández inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete the three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

GAME 1: ANGELS 3, WHITE SOX 2

Notes: Despite playing in three time zones in three straight nights, the Angels received a solid outing by Paul Byrd and a solo home run by Garret Anderson to take a 1-0 advantage in the ALCS ... Byrd, pitching on three days rest, allowed two runs on six hits in 6.0 IP ... José Contreras (3 ER/7.0 IP) saw his nine-game winning streak come to an end ... Joe Crede hit his first home run of the playoffs, a solo shot in the third inning ... Neal Cotts retired both batters faced, the only appearance by a Sox reliever in the series ... the White Sox fell to 0-6 in the ALCS at home.

Notes: The White Sox evened the series with a 2-1 win, recording their first-ever home victory in the ALCS (1-6) ... Joe Crede's two-out double in the ninth inning scored pinch-runner Pablo Ozuna with the winning run and gave the Sox their 16th win of the season when scoring two runs or less ... Ozuna ran for A.J. Pierzynski, who reached first base on a dropped third strike ... Mark Buehrle recorded a complete-game victory, limiting the Angels to one run on five hits while throwing 99 pitches (71 strikes).

Garland, who had not pitched since 10/1, tossed Chicago's second straight complete game, following Mark Buehrle's five-hitter in Game 2 ... the White Sox scored three runs in the first inning on Jermaine Dye's run-scoring single and Paul Konerko's (3-4, HR, 3 RBI) two-run homer off John Lackey ... Chicago's first four batters combined for eight of the 11 hits ... Orlando Cabrera hit a two-run shot in the sixth, the only blemish on Garland's pitching line.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy García nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) ... García, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five ... A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan ... Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game ... Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run ... The White Sox eliminated the Los Angeles Angels in five games to advance to their first World Series since 1959. Mark Buehrle, Jon Garland, Freddy García and José Contreras threw four consecutive complete-game victories to end the series, the first team to accomplish that feat since the 1928 New York Yankees.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie ... Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead ... Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Widger's bases-loaded walk ... Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game ... the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th ... Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced ... BALLIN IN KANNAPOLIS

Class A Kannapolis unveiled its new team name, Cannon Ballers, this past offseason. Their new identity embodies the circus-like atmosphere of a Minor League Baseball game while paying homage to the foundations of Kannapolis as the town the Cannon Family built. Kannapolis also will open up a new ballpark, Atrium Health Ballpark, in 2020. The site of the new ballpark sits on land that formerly housed Cannon Mills, the world's largest textile factory.

CONFERENCE AND LEARNING CENTER

Since its opening in 2001, the Conference & Learning Center at Guaranteed Rate Field has been the site of hundreds of conferences and seminars, while also serving as a meeting location for civic and charity functions and as the site for all White Sox press conferences and media events.

The facility, a joint partnership between Illinois Sports Facilities Authority and the White Sox, was designed by Campbell Tiu Campbell, Inc. and built by the joint venture of Walsh/Riteway.

The CLC, which features the latest in communication and presentation technology, offers users full-service catering by Levy Restaurants and on-site parking. It is available year-round for rental for meetings and events. The center is available for use by local non-profit organizations, businesses and community groups. Non-profit, civic and municipal organizations can use the CLC for reduced or no cost.

Beyond the entertainment provided by baseball's on-the-field activities, the facility allows ISFA and the Chicago White Sox to offer students unique educational opportunities that will allow them to benefit from the experience and knowledge of the organization, its staff and its supporters.

The CLC features a large amphitheater-style auditorium with a seating capacity of 130 and a meeting room that seats 60. The large auditorium features individual consoles at each seat, providing direct audio and data connections and computer signal inputs for projection or plasma display.

CHAMPIONS PLAZA AND CHAMPIONSHIP MOMENTS

"Champions Plaza" and "Championship Moments" monument is a diamond-shaped plaza featuring a prominent bronze and granite monument celebrating the White Sox 2005 World Series championship.

The brick plaza, located at U.S. Cellular Field's main entrance, was unveiled during the 2008 season and is comprised of "legacy bricks" inscribed with personal messages from fans and features a historic timeline highlighting franchise milestones.

The large monument is made of a combination of white bronze and black granite and was designed by the same studio (The Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany) that developed the popular sculptures of Charles Comiskey, Minnie Miñoso, Carlton Fisk, Luis Aparicio, Nellie Fox, Billy Pierce, Harold Baines, Frank Thomas and Paul Konerko, which are located on the outfield concourse at U.S. Cellular Field.

As part of the 10-year anniversary of the 2005 World Series title, White Sox fans were again given the opportunity to purchase bricks on the plaza in support of Chicago White Sox Charities. Those bricks were installed in spring 2015.

Attendance

- The Ranch welcomed 244,820 fans in 2019, the third-largest total attendance in the facilities history. The complex's 8,442 per-game average in 2019 ranked second in its history, falling just 27 fans per game shy of its all-time record (2016). CR-G also recorded seven sellouts in 2018 for the second consecutive season, one shy of its record of eight.
- The White Sox drew 89,936 fans (6,424 per game) last season, their second-highest total in the last seven seasons.
- The Ranch has hosted more than 200,000 fans 10 times in its 11-year history
- Largest crowd: 13,721 - 3/23/13, White Sox vs. Dodgers
- Largest season attendance: 257,609 (2017)
- Most sold-out games: 8 (2016)

Firsts

- Game: White Sox vs. Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Pitch: Hiroki Kuroda, Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Hit: Jayson Nix, White Sox, double, second inning, 3/1/09.
- Home run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inning, 3/1/09.

Campus

- The distinctive complex covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (LAD) and west (CWS) and provides field irrigation, landscaping and aesthetic enhancement.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants and trees.

Stadium

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans.
- Natural materials — real stone veneer, architectural metal "rusty" panels and three-tone faux painting — were used for external finishes to blend into the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored stadium seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look.

Team Buildings

- The Dodgers and White Sox buildings contain more than 118,000 square feet of major/minor league clubhouse space.
- Two of the 12 practice fields (four majors, eight minors) replicate the Dodger and White Sox home ballparks with exact dimensions of Dodger Stadium and Guaranteed Rate Field, respectively.

New in 2020

- Prior to the start of spring training, the city of Glendale, Camelback Ranch, the White Sox and Dodgers announced the opening of Ballpark Boulevard (111th Avenue).
- The new 1.8 mile stretch of road connects CR-G with the Loop 101, Westgate and Glendale's sports and entertainment district. The road opening greatly enhances ingress and egress around the complex.
- Extended the protective netting down the left and right-field lines to ensure the safety of and improve the game-watching experience for fans.
- On the White Sox side, the club completed the construction of a new group meeting space and indoor batting cages on the minor-league side of the complex.

Connectivity

- Fans this season will be able to enjoy free public Wi-Fi throughout the main stadium. Simply connect to the CRG_Public network, open a browser, and follow instructions to access Wi-Fi powered by Cox.
- White Sox fans from all over the country can share photos and experiences using #SoxSpringTraining, and are encouraged to follow @camelbackranch on Instagram and Twitter for behind-the-scenes access and informational updates.

Photo Spots

- The White Sox have joined the Dodgers in honoring their all-star players along the five-acre river and lake system separating the teams' practice fields. The displays list every all-star player in history position by position for fans to enjoy as they walk to and from the stadium and practice fields.
- Each side of the complex also has a six-foot-tall team logo, perfect for selfies. Inside the stadium, snap a pic with larger-than-life bobbleheads of Frank Thomas and Tommy Lasorda.

Improving the Fan Experience

- CR-G in 2018 debuted a 30' x 50' Daktronics videoboard in right-center field this spring. The high definition videoboard provides fans with a dramatic upgrade to the visual and interactive experience during spring training games.
- Another significant enhancement was the addition of two new 100-foot shade structures along the first base concourse. The structures, designed by facility architect HKS, complement existing design features while providing more shaded seating.

CR-Glendale, the shared spring facility of the White Sox and Dodgers, its currently in its second decade.
